

Commission proposals for new candidate European Partnerships are now public

By igor.chiosa, 19 July, 2023

Preparations of new European Partnerships that will be launched during the second half of Horizon Europe have reached an important milestone this week, when the European Commission presented 10 proposals for new candidate partnerships to Member States and Associated Countries:

More info here