The Call for Expression of Interest to participate in the Preparatory Action 'Innovation for place-based transformation' is open until 22 November 2024.

The EU Preparatory Action (PA) 'Innovation for place based transformation' is dedicated to empower territories in supporting policy practitioners in building capacities, designing and implementing transformative approaches.

In concrete, it aims at:

- Raising awareness and enhancing understanding of transformative innovation policies
- Enhancing the readiness of territories to implement transformative innovation policies through the development of new capacities
- Experimenting using participatory and innovative approaches to meet complex sustainability transition challenges
- Informing the debate on an EU Policy framework fit for the future beyond 2027

Public sector authorities from EU Member States, Candidate Countries for accession to the EU and Horizon Europe Associated Countries are invited to express their interest to participate leading their territorial ecosystems in this PA, supported by the European Parliament.
