

Information days and Relevant Events

Information days and relevant events offer an excellent opportunity for featuring your project ideas and identifying cooperation partners for upcoming funding opportunities offered by the EU's Horizon Europe Programme in information and communication technologies and their application areas. The information days will cover the priorities and main aspects of the calls for proposals, evaluation and award process, and will also give tips on how to prepare submit a successful proposal.

Find out more